

New SSG Officers Elected Into Office
Written by: Toni Gloria and Naira Sali

The Supreme Student Government held its election for the new set of officers that will serve for the next school year on May 14.

The following students are the newly elected SSG Officers for the next school year 2024-2025:

POSITION
President	Torio, Margaret Isaiah G.
Vice President	Lardizabal, Joaquin Diego M.
Secretary	Fajardo, Catrynn Alex D.
Treasurer	Baltazar, Renz Nathaniel S.
Auditor	Tolentino, Kenzo Elle M.
Business Manager	Baquilo, Kurt Andrew C.

Public Relations Officer	Pondias, Jan Rizz O.
Peace Officer	Dela Cruz, Charlene C.
Grade 12 Representative	Gacayan, Kirsten Dominique D.
Grade 11 Representative	Argana, Florence Natalie I.
Grade 10 Representative	Suson, Daniela Belle A.
Grade 9 Representative	Dalumpines, Kiersten Ruth D.
Grade 8 Representative	Hernandez, Heleina Brielle R.
Grade 7 Representative	Dela Cruz, Chris Aimil M.
Grade 6 Representative	Teruel, Lady Nazrene C.
Grade 5 Representative	Nepomuceno, Ma. Jia Nicole P.
Grade 4 Representative	Zenarosa, Jasniah L.

During the miting de avance held at the Audio-visual Room prior to the election proper, the candidates had the chance to talk about their proposed platforms and plans for the incoming school year.

Dr. Alexander S. Acosta, school principal, gave his opening remarks wherein he commended the candidates for their courage to run and serve the PSD community.

The Supreme Student Government is the highest governing body that advocates for the students' rights and well-being under the supervision of Mr. Joseph M. Jacob through the Office of Student Affairs.

ALAB party candidates prepare to share their planned programs with the students.

Grade 11 class officers listen attentively and take notes as the candidates deliver their speeches.

Lara Villanueva persuades her Grade 4 batchmates to vote for her as level representative.

Aiming to connect more with incoming grade 7 students, Lois Linatoc vies to be the level representative.

Alijah Abrenica shares his plans to create more school events if elected as Business Manager.

Kenzo Tolentino elaborates on his future role as Auditor under the MARIO party.

Running for Vice President, Joaquin Lardizabal conveys his will to continue serving the PSD community.

"I'd be The Man": Bernice Ventura quotes Taylor Swift as she expresses her passion to lead as the SSC Vice President.

Margaret Torio, MARIO party's Presidential candidate, presents her plan to bring a fresh start in the incoming school year.

Johanna Narisma answers a student's inquiry on one of the ALAB party's proposed events.

Teachers led by SSG Adviser, Joseph Jacob, sit as Board of Canvassers meticulously verify the ballots from all precincts to ensure the accuracy of the results.