

Student Officers Inducted

by Abigail Baladad

The Supreme Student Government (SSG) conducted its annual induction of class officers from all departments into their respective roles on September 1-2 at the Edgar V. Bondoc Gymnasium.

To emphasize their roles and responsibilities, officers from all departments were welcomed at the event to instill a sense of commitment and accountability among the officers.

"The induction of the classroom officers from the different departments aimed to underscore the essentials of responsibilities that should be displayed by each officer," stated the SSG President, Margaret Isaiah G. Torio.

The oath-taking was led by the respective vice principals from the Preschool to the Senior High School which served as the official pledge of commitment of the class officers to the school and their classes.

Meanwhile, the SSG Vice President, Joaquin Diego M. Lardizabal gave an emphasis on the significance of leadership of every officer in his closing remarks. He said that the context of leadership should be built-in with respect, collaboration, and growth where he concluded that through these qualities, it would be easy for the entire organization to achieve success.

PHOTO CAPTIONS

Grade 5 students listen and participate throughout the event.

SSG guides the primary student in the oath taking.

Grade 5 students cooperate during the oath taking ceremony.

Dr. Wilgie Mae T. Serna administers the oath taking for the Intermediate class officers.

SSG PRO Jan Rizz Pondias and Vice President Joaquin Diego Lardizabal facilitate the event.

Grade 10 students display their commitment by taking an oath.

Dr. Caridad A. Canete leads the oath taking ceremony for the junior high school class officers.

Grade 11 students declare the oath and vow to do their job as the class offices.