POD 'Small Wins' Poster Making Contest Hosted

by Keizha Nunez

The Prefect of Discipline, alongside the Peace Envoy Officers, hosted its On-the-Spot Poster Making Contest themed "Small Wins" to amplify the moral values of every student and highlight life lessons and resiliency on September 18, 2024 at the Audio-Visual Room.

The competition was opened to Grades 6-12, with the prompt 'Little Achievements Creating Bigger Impacts.' All contestants had the chance to present their artworks with a short speech to the judges - namely the Chairman of the Board of Judges, Ms. Anna Marie Jumalon, Ms. Alaiza Mae Alaferez, Dr. Ericson Rayel, and two PSD Alumni-Rogsh Emmanuel H. Garcia and Reniel Jared Acabado.

The winners from each level were rewarded on October 7 with a certificate, point credits in certain subjects depending on their department, and extra-curricular points. The following are the winners per level:
