

SSG Spearheads Leadership Training Seminar by Reiniel Mojica

The Supreme Student Government (SSG) hosted its annual Leadership Training Seminar to uphold student leaders' skills and responsibilities, anchoring the theme 'More Than a Role: Leadership with Accountability' at the Edgar V. Bondoc Gymnasium on August 23, 2025.

The Intermediate, Junior High School, and Senior High School departments held their leadership training sessions for the class officers of their respective levels at the following timings:

Department	Schedule
Intermediate Department	8 - 10 a.m.
Junior High School Department	10:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.
Senior High School Department	1 - 3 p.m.

The Intermediate Department seminar speaker, Vice Principal Dr. Wilgie Mae T. Serna, discussed the significance of kindness in leadership. Through a variety of discussions and activities, such as the pair mirror activity, the Intermediate Department upheld the theme 'Rooted in Kindness: Leadership with a Heart.'

Subsequently, Vice Principal Dr. Caridad A. Cañete, the seminar speaker of the Junior High School department, discussed the importance of legacy and the role of leadership. In the session, the class officers augmented their teamwork and cooperation skills through a leadership contract activity. Rooted with the theme 'Becoming the Role: Leading with Responsibility,' she closed the session with a quote,

"Your legacy will be defined not by the power you possessed, but by the positive impact you created."

Furthermore, the seminar speaker of the Senior High School Department, Vice Principal Dr. Noemi F. Formaran, stressed out the pillars of a lasting legacy and its corresponding actions, and the benefits and responsibilities of being a student leader. During the session, the SHS students engaged in various activities, including a legacy hunt, statement, poster, and skit, which contributed to their communication skills and camaraderie. With the theme 'Beyond the Title: Leading with Legacy', she stated,

"Leadership is not a title, it is a choice. You have the power to create a legacy of purpose and positive change, starting right now."

The Leadership Training Seminar, organized annually by the SSG, aims to empower class officers of PSD by providing a variety of activities and speeches across multiple sessions to strengthen their leadership abilities.
