In her opening remarks, SSG President Bernice Ventura highlighted that true leadership transcends titles; it is fundamentally about serving others and holding the power to uplift and motivate those around us. She stated,

“A good leader starts with being a good follower.”

Moreover, the keynote speaker of the event, Vice Principal of Records Dr. Michaelino A. Saratan, encompassed his speech on the essential qualifications and traits of an effective student leader. He also emphasized the need for accountability in leadership and its benefits for students and their teams. He shared,

“A great leader doesn’t only listen with their ears but also listens with their heart.”

The Induction and Oath-Taking Ceremony, along with the Leadership Training Seminar, are annual events hosted by SSG aimed to officially recognize the newly elected club officers while equipping them with the necessary skills to lead responsibly and effectively.
