HK-LRC awards Book Week Competition Winners

Written by: Maryam Anuar

The PSD Harry Keiswetter Learning Resource Center awarded the winners of the 89th National Book Week celebration with the theme: “Read, Reread, Relive” on December 11 at the PSD Audio-visual room.

QAAD Curriculum Specialist, Dr. Julie Ann Real, welcomed the participants and teachers in the program on behalf of the School Principal, Dr. Alexander Acosta, encouraging the students to celebrate the power of literature. Moreover, Dr. Real also mentioned that these books create the potential to empower and relieve the book characters and storytellers within people.

“The activities were not just about turning pages but also about turning our minds to new ideas, perspectives, and endless possibilities.”

In closing, High School Librarian, Ms. Maidie Acosta extended her heartfelt gratitude to all the teachers, students, and staff who made the program possible. She also amplified that all the books resonate with the minds and hearts of the students for them to read, reread, and relive the gifts of literature.

The different categories of the library competition were endorsed to all students from nursery to senior high school to showcase the literary and artistic skills of the students among each grade level. Additionally, The Philippines' 89th National Book Week celebration was marked with the theme: "Read, Reread, and Relive," resonating with the post-pandemic situation of the students in the Philippines and the need for education to be accelerated and recovered.

PSD High School Librarian, Maidie Acosta, serves as the Master of Ceremonies for the Book Week Celebration awarding.

QAAD Curriculum Specialist, Dr. Julie Ann Real, warmly unfolds the program through an opening remark on behalf of School Principal, Dr. Alexander Acosta.
