

Blue Eagles, acclaimed as Preschool Play Day Champions
By Leila Gonzales and Daniel Abellera

The Preschool Department hailed the Blue Eagles as its Play Day Champions, leaving the Red Tamaraws, White Hawks, then Yellow Tigers behind during the Play Day 2024: EXPO (Experiencing the 'Xtraordinary Preschool mini Olympics) that featured different games and performances on February 20 for Batch A and February 21 for Batch B.

To commence the event, Dr. Alexander S. Acosta, School Principal, extended his heartfelt gratitude to the parents who took time out of their busy schedules to attend the occasion.

“Today is not only a Play Day, but a family day for us,” he said.

The following team and individual awards were presented for the respective batches:

Additionally, The Preschool Play Day is an annual event organized by the Preschool Department, headed by its Vice Principal, D. Nida H. Garcia, for children to bond with their parents. As such, the occasion features a variety of games, activities, and performances aiming to foster physical development and nurture camaraderie.

The White Hawks parents cheer to ignite their children's spirits for the Play Day.

Red tamaraws, attention! The soldier-inspired children captivate the audience.

Proud Parents: The Yellow Tigers display their support for Mary Louise, the Yellow Tigers' muse.

The four teams showcase their creativity through environment-friendly banners.

Vice Principal, Dr. Garcia; School Principal, Dr. Acosta; and HRPTA-BOD President Benavidez join hands in commencing the Preschool Play Day.

Teacher Jo lights up the athletic urn, symbolizing a friendly Play Day for the preschoolers.

The Preschool Family unites for a final capture of the momentous event.
