PSD Club Officers, inaugurated By: Leila Gonzales

Philippine School Doha inaugurated the newly-elected club officers, virtually and on-campus, under the supervision of the Supreme Student Government on October 14 at Edgar V. Bondoc Gymnasium.

Dr. Alexander S. Acosta, the School Principal, delivered a keynote address in which he underscored the role of accountability that every student leader should carry, stating:

“Think always that whatever you do always means the benefit of the entire members. Again, take the lead and be the light of your member.”

Then, Mrs. Melissa R. Montayre, the vice principal of Office of Student Affairs (OSA), led the officers in reciting their oaths as they swore to commit themselves and uphold their duties to their respective clubs.

The induction was attended by the officers of following clubs:

Sponsored Clubs

- Hiyaw Chorale
- Hiyaw Dance Troupe

To conclude, Mrs. Montayre expressed her gratitude to the significant people who took part in the event, acknowledging their hard work and dedication.

It can be noted that the club offerings were put on hiatus during the pandemic and only during the current school year that interest clubs are offered again in full swing.

SSG's Trisha Dizon and Aariz Khan serve as the masters of ceremonies for the induction ceremony.

Lyka Acabado, SSG's Peace Officer, opens the ceremony with an opening prayer.

Moderators and club officers assemble in preparation for the induction ceremony.
